His Former Attorney Says Creen Is Crazy

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 22.—Thomas Shanks, an Attorney of Columbus, Ga., who is at Lebanon, Ky., with relatives, declares there is no doubt that William Creen, Assailant of Leo M. Frank, is insane and has been for years. Shanks says he defended Creen when he was charged with a murder committed at Columbus in 1913, and that Creen became angry because a man laughed at him and killed him, after Shanks had been appointed by the Court to defend Creen. Creen refused to confer and sat uncommunicative in his cell, which Fact, Shanks says he reported to Court, Shanks says Creen was injured on the head several years ago while working on a Construction Gang and that the wound left a deep indentation in his skull.
